The National Beep Baseball Association kicked off its championship competition at the Mary and John Geisse Soccer Complex in Eagle Creek Park Monday. A total of 16 teams from the U.S. and one from Taiwan are all made up of blind and visually impaired players. All are hoping to take home the title. The game uses a ball that makes a beeping noise so it can be heard instead of seen. To keep the game fair, everyone wears a blindfold.

The championship game will be played August 6.
